Christmas

*"The mistletoe hung in the castle hall
The holly branch shone on the old oak wall."
--Thomas Haynes Bayly.*

O H, happy Christmas day -- we bid thee welcome. We've been counting the days -- yea, the hours and minutes -- to hear thy merry bells ring out that joyful message of old -- "Peace on Earth, Good Will toward Men." And -- at last -- we've heard it. We're content. Happy. Thankful.

In every home in the land -- from the humble candle lighted shack up to the marble halls of the rich man's castle -- there prevails a certain spirit of kindness that only this festive occasion brings. It's that Christmas feeling of Good Will toward our fellow man. And that this is sincere is proven by the smiling countenances, the kindly words and the hearty hand-clasps which greet one on every side. Yes, verily, all the world is looking on the brighter side of life and enjoying this "day of days." Hence, we the undersigned, desire to express our feelings as well. We most heartily and sincerely wish you and everybody else in this great community

A Very Merry Christmas

And trust, that our future relations with you will be just as happy as they have been in the past.

WINTER FEEDING
Final preparations for winter feeding are now being made by farmers in the Vauxhall district. It is expected that 10,000 lambs and 600 steers will be fed.

NEW WHEAT POOL SECRETARY
R. O. German, of Foremost Alta, has been named secretary of the Alberta Wheat Pool in place of J. A. Jackman, who has resigned to hold his position as trustee.

Mr. John A. McDonald, of Forest Lawn, was calling in the neighborhood the first part of the week, with batch questions, and pleasant man. He was found to be very prosperous for 1924, which statement carries considerable weight with us trustees.

C.P.R. OFFICIALS WILL EXPLAIN CONTRACT AT NIGHTINGALE

Wm. Irvine Will Also Speak There

A meeting of the farmers is to be held at Nightingale on December 29, when Col. Dougherty, Land Superintendant, Department of Natural Resources, and Mr. G. H. McLean, C.P.R. official, will explain the new C.P.R. Contract. Questions will be invited.

The evening Mr. William Irvine, M.P., will speak on "How to Win in the U.P.A. Worth Saving?"

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Italian and family left on Tuesday for Kamloops, and the Rev. Mr. Sandy Calder will look after Mr. Italian's farm while he is away.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Wilson, and Master Raymond Wilson left for Ontario to attend the annual convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Knight and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bond leave on Wednesday afternoon for a week's vacation with their families to spend Xmas with their relations.

Mr. Dennis Howell is on a business mission to the U.S.A.

It is being mentioned around that the farmers of many districts in the west are holding meetings and inviting the C.P.R. to have a representative attend to explain the new C.P.R. contract the company is offering its settlers. This is a move in the right direction, and it is to be hoped that there is much misunderstanding in the minds of the farmers as to what is to be done, and that the result will be to the advantage of the farmers of the Irricana district to call a mass meeting and invite a representative to attend and explain this new contract. It is only a question of time when the importance of a meeting must be shown, and the sooner we get death explained, the better will be the results.

Mr. Fred Davis represented the irrigation constituents at the annual convention of the C.P.R. held in Edmonton.

Under the auspices of the local branch of the Ladies' Aid, Christmas festivities will be held in the I.O.O.F. Hall on Thursday evening at 8 p.m.

The girls will sing carols, and the maturing willowettes of their tutor, Miss Lois Chapman, will sing Christmas carols, render vocal and instrumental music. A Christmas tree will help delight the hearts of the children, and a large number of good things to eat will be hung therefor for every child in the district.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott convened a lengthy session to a large congregation on Sabbath evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Elliott were Xmas shoppers in the city.

Martin conies is now nearing completion, which will be well appreciated when the time comes. As far as most of us do this is a job that has been badly needed for some time.

TRAIN WRECK IN ROCKYFORD YARDS

At 5 a.m. Saturday morning, while eastbound freight was coming into the station, instead of being on main line, it jumped the switch and cannoned into a string of cars—the accident being so sudden that fortunately there were no personal injuries, and only a few of the cattle in the cars were killed. The wrecking crew from Calgary came out yesterday and cleaned up the yards. The cause of the accident is not known, as several trains had stopped on the main line, and stayed on the main line. The end of the freight did his best to pull up what he saw was off the track, but could not stop completely in the short distance.

COUNCIL MEET

A meeting of the Council of the village was held on Monday evening. Phil Ringerfelder brought up the question of lighting the town, but the council did not take any action for the present. The new bridge over the Bow River was also brought up, but further details will be available at a meeting to be held on January 7th to discuss this subject.

ROCKYFORD LADIES' CLUB

The Rockyford Club met at the home of Mr. D. R. Ford on Friday 13th. The president and club members who were pleased to welcome their guests were Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Clegg, who can get in. The fee for yearly membership being 50c, and for three months' dues, which is served after each meeting.

The object of the club is to create a social center for the town, for community good of some kind, such as the building of a town hall, which is now in progress.

The ladies propose to start a bridge tournament, combined with a tennis tournament, and hope in this they have for encouragement and support from the whole town. Here's a chance to boost your home town.

CHRISTMAS IN ST. RITA'S CHURCH

The great feast of Christmas, the birthday of Our Divine Saviour, will be with us again. Christmas is always a grand and joyful time in the Rockies, and the church service is as attractive and inspiring throughout the entire year, as the mid-Mass. Masses will be held daily to be celebrated in Rockyford Monday commencing sharp at 12 o'clock. The services will be conducted in English, for the occasion, and the number will be far on a grander scale than ever before. The services will be held around Rockyford. The choir in charge of Mr. C. R. Walord, has prepared a program of music and attending are assured of a musical treat.

The following compose the choir: Sister Mary St. Rita, Superior; Griffiths and Mrs. Crough; also the Misses A. and L. Ligotte, novices. Mr. C. R. Walord, organist; Mr. Walord; basses, Messrs. H. and E. McPherson. Art Sangster will make his debut. Mrs. St. Rita will sing solo, and will preside at the organ. Mrs. Mrs. McPherson will accompany on the violin. The public are cordially invited.

The Sunday School of the Union Church will sing a cantata on Friday evening at 8 p.m. A fine programme has been arranged, and everyone is welcome.

To Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, on suggestion of the Bank of Commerce, Rockyford Hospital, a daughter.

Get together on the Hockey Club.

The rink is off at the moment, but when the weather is milder to start doubles.

Rockyford elevators will be closed on December 21 and 25, also December 28.

It is reported that one of the delegations in the recent village election intends to dispute the legality of irregularities in the voting.

On Sunday evening Rev. Dr. James Service, in the Union Church, the pictures to be shown are very beautiful.

A turkey supper will be served at the U.P.W.A. on December 31, and as the turkey is promised, it is hoped the tenvety will be present.

Ed Lyons, Jr., has arrived from Canada and will be here for the next month. During his absence there has been no action for the present. The new bridge over the Bow River was also brought up, but further details will be available at a meeting to be held on January 7th to discuss this subject.

Don't forget the Xmas tree on Monday, December 24th.

Ever hear of the "one-idea" people? One of them went for the winter supplies, and one for the winter, was asked by his friend in misfortune, what he had planned. The answer was, "I am going to get rich." He then took out 4 bottles of whiskey, 1 case of beer, and 2 leaves of tobacco. The star at the top of the bottle was never lit, and the leaves were never lit. Alberta, and I will await settle down and lead by old team, the "Bear" season comes around.

We are attempting to record your doings as you would like to have them recorded. In the above, we have not fallen back on fiction and if at any time we have given you cause for offence, rest assured that we are doing our best to make amends.

The effort of the club is to bring the people together for the common welfare of the town, which is now in progress.

The ladies propose to start a bridge tournament, combined with a tennis tournament, and hope in this they have for encouragement and support from the whole town. Here's a chance to boost your home town.

To those who have followed our series and nonsense, (mostly the latter), during the past year, we would like to say a few words. CHRISTMAS

(By Rev. A. H. Rowe)

When the glad day dawns again, with its gleeful salutations, its finding of presents, stockings and about the tree, or at the breakfast table, will someone speak or think of Him, whose coming prompted the happiness and the giving?

As the earth moves onward and onward appears the gladness that has been reexamined, glorified, dispelled, proportions have been made, and comes with reunion perhaps, the feast, is there any room for Him, whose birthday it is?

The hours pass by in chat and reminiscence, in out door sports, and indoor amusement, while happiness continues to the end of a perfect day and where is He that is born the King of the Jews, our King?

Again we will rejoice with them that do rejoice, and one feature of a happy Christmas would have us omit, but we should honor and recognize him, and make him the center of attention. And the Christ's gift is to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, minister to the afflicted and rescue the lost rather than to load with more the already surfeited.

Shall we not keep the Christ in Christmas, and let the children understand, if the words differ not in meaning but one day our children may find it containing an unknown X.

Let us spiritualize Christmas!

Job Printing

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS

Advertising

The up-to-date Job Plant of the Standard is well equipped to handle any job of printing efficiently and at standard Western Canada prices. The excellent telephone service now in operation throughout the Western Bow Valley will put you in touch with us at any time. We make a specialty of quick service on rush orders.

CASTING BOX

The Standard does not pretend to compete with the city newspapers in general news. Our field is the news of the territory which our circulation covers, and general items which intimately concern our readers.

The home news is, after all, the most important news, because it affects you personally, and while every person should take an active interest in national and world affairs, at the same time if they take a real interest in the welfare of their own community they are in a position to do something practical to assist that community.

Our aim has always been to assist in the building up in the Western Bow Valley of a satisfied, healthy, happy, and prosperous community, as far as possible self-contained, for the more of our own wants we supply within our own borders the better off we shall be.

Having installed additional machinery in the past few months, we are in a position to give better service than ever before to our readers and advertisers. Shortly after the new year we will commence publication of a cartoon, photo news, and comic strip service, got together by some of the best artists and news specialists on the continent. This will cost us money, but it will give you a better newspaper than before.

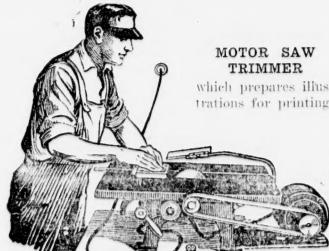

In an ideal newspaper the ads, as well as the news should be good reading matter. To assist our advertisers to make their ads attractive we are supplying them with an illustration service, which, as you will have noticed, has been in operation during the present month.

At all times we welcome suggestions from our readers for the improvement of the Standard. We want you to look upon it as YOUR newspaper. A newspaper should be a co-operative venture, as between readers, advertisers, and publishers. We invite you to co-operate.

Wishing You a Very Merry Xmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Advertising is one of the greatest creative forces in modern business. When properly done, it is of great benefit to both reader and advertiser, and the merchant who does not employ it is not serving his community as he should, or assisting his own business interest.

With a circulation, almost exclusively rural, of around 1100 copies per issue, the Standard offers the Bow Valley merchant a magnificent opportunity to keep the business at home that belongs there. Advertising rates are as low as is consistent with the service that is rendered. Rate card, giving full details, furnished on application.
